he Builethat publishes the following late from Mexico:- :

ACAPUICO, August 17th, a Mexican Government, confident that will hat able to master the presunctedos al mungimus Generals (who were satisfied with the reward received for e devotion to the National cause, or who altogether excluded from public service. n the partial amounty, and perhaps leaning and amountains to the United States), has lly given orders to release General Conzales. ega and Patoni, after eighteen months' imonment, The latter had been offered his rty long ago, on condition not to present self in the City of Mexico, but he wanted an onditional release, and thus they were b th t in durance vile, the State Attorney buntfor evidence which might lend to condemna. and the consequence was that they were: er indicted—individual liberty, promised by Constitution, because this a doad letter. ry one now expents that a general amnesty be the consequence of this late not of jusbut what gen I can be expected from Presib duered, who is tringh and capricious as a Indian, and never forgives an insult? the compaign of General Escobedo against Sierra Gordo has apparently terminated sanatorily, though I do not read of a single at notion, or sorrender on the part of the els, who either dispersed or book shelter in mountain recesses. In the Sierra of Puebla stern even fared worse. General Francisco cas professed his faithfulness to Government s high-toned pranifesto. At the same time nerd Lucas sliowed General Negrete to esne, with all his troops, to the Htute of a Vara az, where the whole game has to be playover again. Another report says that Gene-Alatorre fell into na ambush and fled to

But I will not ontertain you with enumerasmilitury notions: the recital of some enrious assetions on the different sales will be more laing. The diego rounding from Tolancingo. the City of Moximo was seen sted a fortnight o, the chief of the roubers destroying all the ters contained in the letter-bag and in serting their stend two letters of his own-me to the essident and the other to the Postmaster. The tter's was course and oil usive, and most likely at destined for the President will have been the same character: but, unfortunately, the bher cifiel must have marle a pristake in the kircas—the latter actually received by Juneez illy a love letter to his querida Anfellia. ch appeared fiest day in print, thus giving fair bride a chance of becoming acquainted itu its contents

A not less amosing document is the manisto directed by General Loxado "to all the abbers and thiefs in the district of Tepic." alling thus; "Mannel Lozado, General of ivision. Natural Commander Comanduate tto, which means by birth of all the forces in e villages in this State, to all auxiliary camanders and those interested in the following, seering." This interesting document promises agunity and liberty to the above classes, bether in privin or fugitives, provided they resent themselves within thirty days and prome in future to lead an honest life. Any lief or robber after the expiration of said time ill be snot on the spot. The Minister of ustice does not see by what right Lezado (the reneral by hirth) should have issued such a ecces, and direct the authorities to consider he same null and void; but Liozado will neverbeloss reason the "Autocrat of San Tans," s lie is turined in his district.

I shall conclude by relating a curious conflict now existing in the city of Puebla (of 80,000 infoshitants; between the anthorities and the Judges. The latter having received no salary for a length of time, threatened to close their tribunals, and the Government desired their to leave all judiciary acts to the respective abuides, if they would not wait any longer for their pay, suntting the Judges out at the sunt time from the Palace of Justice. But the Judges would not give up their position, and opened their Courts at the offices of different

Notaries Public, whose soucham they considered s respectable as the forum of old. The people of Puebla are exasperated at the base conduct of their Judges, and expect that the State Legislature will set matters right again. In this State nothing of importance has happened and our position is as isolated as ever. nolods evening for the troubles in the interior, and Alverez contenting himself with his independent away.

Miscellaneous. Margaret Johnson, ninety-one years of age was charged at the Thunes court with being FOR SHANGHAI, CHEFOO, & TIENTSIN drunk and disorderly. Mr. Bosson told ber it Was time she left off drinking. "I will leave it off, sir." was the old lady's reply; "I am going into Kent, hopping; I go every year." Mr. Beason thought the "hopping," for a person of Mrs. Johnson's years, more remarkable than the drinking, and discharged her. A lady who describes herself as "a successful (not " authoress "-a word justly abhorred by our female novelists) is, notwith standing her success, in want of £60; and, in a. supplement of the Times, promises "literary status" to any one who will advance her that aum. Those who are base enough not to care for "literary status" may have the more solid above port recompense of "board and lodging " which the advertiser, who is evidently familiar with the Latin language, offers as a "quid proquo." Letters are to be addressed to "Scripta; which it is to be hoped the adverser does not imagine to Le the Latin equivalent for "fema . "THE ADORABLE MENKEN."-Adah Isaacs Menken died lately at Paris, after having suffered severely for many weeks from disease: of the lungs. According to her own statement. made some months ago when she was delivering a lecture, she was burn in New Orleans in the spring of 1841. Her father, Ricardo Februs, a Spanish Jew, was a merchant in that city, Hermother was a mative of Bordenux. Her maiden name was Dolores Adios Fourtes. At the age of 13 she was left utterly unprovided for, and at 14 came out at a theatre in New Orleans, her native city, as a dancer. Her success was flattering in the extreme, and for upwards of a year she continued this vocation, appearing in FOR MELBOURNE AND SYDNEY. the principal theatres in the couth on tutes. and once in Havannah.
